

Programs in Spring | Summer | FallGoal:

To spark students' interest in improving community health for Californians.

Program structure:

Students work in teams of 4-6 members. Team members are encouraged to be from the same school; however members can be from different schools.

Who is eligible?

High school students:

- From Yolo, Solano, Sacramento, and surrounding counties.
- In a team of 4 – 6.
- With interest in exploring health careers.
- Committed to attend all sessions.

Prior to each session, dates and application are posted at:

[health.ucdavis.edu/diversity/
k12_outreach.html](http://health.ucdavis.edu/diversity/k12_outreach.html)

Health Equity Academy - Leaders for Tomorrow's Healthcare (HEALTH)

HEALTH Equity Academy introduces high school students to various health professions, medical technology, and human systems. In conjunction with strength-based leadership training, the program's emphasis is on community leadership, health disparities, and future opportunities in healthcare.

Participant Highlights:

- Attend program at UC Davis School of Medicine
- Meet health professionals and students
- Learn about the different pathways to a career in healthcare
- Practice leadership skills
- Address a public health issue in your community
- Tuition Free

For more information contact us at:
hs-osrd@ucdavis.edu, (916) 734-2615

Participants are required to attend and actively participate in all sessions.